Autobiography

My name is Oksana Marchuk. I am 23 years old. I was born on February 28, 1996. I come from a village. I have a small family. My father and brother have their own farms, they grow crops and technical crops. Grandma lives with us too. I'm not married.

My height is 158 cm, weight 50 kg. At my house there is a small garden, where various vegetables are grown and, since there is a garden, I was taught of how to work in the field.

In 2013 I've entered Melitopol State Pedagogical University named after Bogdan Khmelnytsky. In 2018 I've received a Master's Degree in Sociology of Municipal Policy.

I studied German in school, I can also understand English. I also speak Russian and Ukrainian. I have a driver's license and I can drive a car. I lead a healthy lifestyle, I do not drink alcohol and do not smoke. I like to go in for sports, I regularly go to the gym. I play table tennis, volleyball well.

Working abroad is important because I'd like to get the new knowledge that I will need to master my future profession. Also, the main motivation for working abroad is high wages and good working conditions.
